50th REUNION NEWS

Attending your 50th Class Reunion!

We have been encouraging our high school classmates to reunite in various ways for the past ten years. During this time, we have had two major reunions, our 40th and 45th, plus several dozen mini-events all over the country. When it comes to getting together, it has become clear that our class is divided into three groups.

The first group, thankfully, is comprised of the people who have stayed in touch with some of their old friends and use our class events to maintain those relationships, while also making new ones. This is a curious and somewhat brave group too, as they have put their toe in the water and decided to take the plunge. They have discovered they really enjoy the fun and fellowship to be found in reuniting. Surprisingly, the attraction of this newfound fellowship is not limited to former classmates and friends, as new bonds between former high school strangers are formed during every event. To prove this, nearly 90% of the folks responsible for working so well and long together reuniting our class were not friends in high school.

Sadly, the second group are folks who would not be caught dead at any of our high school reuniting events. These folks have mentioned, in sometimes very pointed ways, that they either have had a bad high school experience that still is with them, or they simply aren't interested in stuff and people from that long ago. I say that this is sad, because it precludes them from even checking things out and finding, as we all did, that what went on in AHS has stayed in AHS. They will never know that who we are now are over 400 people with similar early backgrounds who have lived full and varied lives and are now ready to share some of themselves with new old friends. They will never know that it's not about High School anymore; it's about getting to know some very interesting people who have remarkably similar starting points and backgrounds.

Finally, there is a large group of folks who usually consider attending our events when they hear of them, but they never quite make it. They aren't sure what it would be like and they aren't sure they want to chance meeting up with someone from the past, possibly themselves. They think it would be nice to see so-and-so again, but it's been so long that it's probably not worth it. These are the folks who, once it's over and they hear how much fun it was, wish they had attended. I'll bet these are folks who would have a terrific time at our 50th Reunion, if they would only take the chance this time and attend.

Most of the major events in our lives have already happened. Yet, like fine wine and vintage cars, our 50th High School Reunion seems to be one of those major events in our lives that are not held until it can be fully appreciated. I promise you, that we will do everything we can possibly do to make your attendance truly one of the most wonderful and memorable major events of your life. Please come, we would all very much like to see you again.

Thanks,
John Torrens - Petaluma, CA

Class of '59 Friendship Fund

Thanks to the leadership and generous initial contribution of our classmate Joe Putz of Houston, TX, a Friendship Fund has been established to be used to help classmates attend our 50th Reunion who might otherwise be unable to make it. After establishment of the Fund was announced in the last two Newsletters, several other classmates have also made generous contributions to the Fund. We hope others will also contribute so that we are able to offer partial reimbursement of expenses in the form of scholarships to those who apply. All applications will be confidential. Our goal is to enable everyone who has the desire to join in the Festival of Friendship, which is what our 50th Reunion is all about, to be able to do so. With your help, we will succeed.

We thank those of you who have already been so generous, and ask everyone who can, to join by sending your contribution, payable to AHS Class of '59 to our Treasurer, Gary Snell at 604 Can Dota Avenue, Mt. Prospect, IL 60056. Please note "Friendship Fund" on the "memo" line.

Details of how to apply to the fund for a scholarship will be in the Spring Newsletter. Meanwhile, thank you Joe and everyone who has started the Friendship Fund down the road to success.

It's all about friends helping friends!

We hope to see you ALL at our 50th Reunion

Golden Reflections Memory Book

If you could read some of the bios and see some of the pictures that have been submitted for our "Golden Reflections Memory Book"—you would be delighted, enthralled, saddened, proud and reflective all at the same time. I am so proud of our class and it gives me great joy to report that 86 classmates have already submitted bios for the book. We hope to have a least 200 by middle of February—will you be one of them?

I anticipate having as many as 350 bios and possibly more when it is all said and done, but that all depends on "you" our classmates. I need your cooperation in getting your bio in over these next few weeks. I don't want to be put into the position of getting them all in at the last minute. Let me explain why. I need some 70 days in production and shipping before the 50th Reunion—I also need time to put this all together and 350 bios and pictures, along with many other wonderful sections to the book is going to take a ton of time. Therefore, I ask you to take the time to submit your bio for the book—please do it now! The template for the book is on our web site:

www.arlingtonhigh59.com. It is also attached to the back of this newsletter. It's oh so easy to fill out and simple enough to insert a jpeg photo at the end or under separate emails / postal cover.

I've also attached an initial template showing what a page may look like in the book. It's only an initial template, but it really gives you an idea on how we're going to be treating each classmate as you read through the book. I know you'll be pleased and excited to own a copy of this book when it becomes available. We're going to be doing our level best to make this affordable to every single classmate whether they attend the reunion or not. So, get those fingers, pens and pencils ready and start writing your bios now—we want to hear from you very soon.

*Thanks,
Jeff Pratt*

Help Wanted!

Have you ever heard of a phone tree? You know, you call ten people and they call ten people, and they call ten people and pretty soon, everybody in the world has been called! We want to make sure that everyone in our class is aware of our 50th Reunion so were going to actually call them up and talk with them about it. Want to help? Read on...

First thing we need to do is recruit some people to do the phoning. Requirements are simple: You need some time, a phone with a lot of minutes (a big bank account will also work), a nice way about you on the phone that doesn't piss people off, and the ability to work your way down a checklist as you talk and laugh with someone you haven't spoken to in 50 years. Then, you need to be willing to share some of the info you received, like are they coming to the Reunion or not, with someone like me who will compile everything. That's it. Interested? Then please read one last paragraph.

We really need your help with this and it gives you a chance to help with our 50th Reunion while sitting on your fistarus at home. If you would like to give this a shot, let me know and I will add you to our list of phoners. By the way, we're going to need a cute name for our T-Shirts that will be required to be worn while making your calls. Any ideas for a cute name? Were going to get organized in February and start calling in March. Call me!

It was a Fun Day!

HAWAII CRUISE REPORT BY BOB WAKE
NOVEMBER 6 - NOVEMBER 21, 2008

On the way to San Diego, our embarkation port, Kathy and I stopped to see Gary and Ann (Carlisle) Garnett in Sun City West. Everyone else flew, but I really like the way Western Oklahoma, Northern Texas and Eastern New Mexico look (my rider says, "Never again!"). Really a scenic area....if you like flat, brown, and rock with picnic areas with NO facilities. Before dinner on Nov 4, Gary made an incredible guacamole dip to go with some Deer Creek wine. Ann made dinner for us and the Garrs (Roy and Cathy) and Gary's Mom. After replacing a tire the next morning, we continued on to San Diego. Coming down off the mountain into Yuma, AZ, I met another very nice law enforcement officer. Another warning ticket—guess I am one up on Nancy Snell now.

The Cruise was scheduled to embark on Nov 6, but the prior cruise had a medical emergency and lost a day, as they had to turn back to their last port. That caused a new itinerary for us with financial consideration for losing the first day and the overnight in Honolulu. We were notified of the change and all kept their original plans and saw some of San Diego with our extra day. Almost all of us toured the USS Midway, an aircraft museum near the port. That evening (Nov 6) Betty and Susan had arrived in time for dinner with the rest of us at the Fish Market restaurant about a block or two away from the Port. Carol (Conroy) Zanio and her husband drove down and had dinner with us. All of us had stayed at the Holiday Inn right across the street from the port and so we used their shuttle service to the ship. Almost all had boarded in time for lunch and we headed out to Hawaii just before dinner. Later, we learned that Doug and Anna Marie's luggage was still at the Holiday Inn. They had checked it while on a Trolley ride of the city. The next few days were spent at sea with lots of great entertainment (a comedian, a ventriloquist, and an elaborate show by the Celebrity Singers/Dancers), bingo, trivia, Sudoku, karaoke, computer classes, lei making and movies, etc.

On the morning of Nov 11, we saw Oahu approaching. It takes awhile at 20 knots to get us into port from first land sighting. That morning, there had been a special Veteran's reception held in honor of all the Veterans on board. As part of our new itinerary, we knew that we would arrive too late to get to the Arizona Memorial. A plan was put together by Celebrity for the Veterans, with the cooperation of the US Navy, to take 150 people to the memorial. A priority list was agreed to by the vets with the following order...Pearl Harbor Vets, WW II Vets, Korea Vets and the balance by lottery. Bill and Doug were selected, I was not. Most of us took a three-to-four-hour tour of the Pearl Harbor Museum (w/o the AZ Memorial itself), Punchbowl National Cemetery, and sightseeing of the Island and Honolulu. The Luau that was cancelled the night before was changed to the ship itself. The Yates finally got their luggage and quickly dressed in swim gear, took a cab to Waikiki Beach, jumped in the water and then came back to the ship. The next morning we were at Kailua-Kona on the big Island of Hawaii. We took the tenders to shore and took excursions, which included an Atlantis Submarine (120 ft down to see the fish and coral), a Hawaiian outrigger adventure, and Highlights of Kona including a coffee plantation. We headed off to Hilo that evening.

Our Cruise had our own medical emergency that evening on the ship and we sped straight to Hilo so the 81-year-old man could get emergency medical treatment. As a result, we did not do the 360-degree turn while going by Mt Kilauea (an active volcano). The red glow was still somewhat visible from a distance.

At Hilo, on the other side of the Island, most of us went on some excursion that included a trip to Volcanoes National Park, a lava tube, and the Mauna Loa Macadamia Nut Factory. Then we were off to Lahaina, Maui.

On Maui, we went to Maui Tropical Plantation and the Iao Valley State Park. Some went to the Ocean Center and one couple went snorkeling. That evening, our cruise director announced that a new entertainer had boarded the ship, a singer from the UK named Helen Jayne. She is the same entertainer that was aboard the Galaxy when we went to the Panama Canal. She did similar shows to the ones we saw there and got rave reviews, at least from me. Then it was time to head back to the Continental US. On the way back, we had unusually smooth water and did many of the same things we did at sea going to Hawaii. This time Marlene Neurauter finally won a bingo game, just a couple hundred dollars, not an upgrade. Ed Wahl helped finish a 1000 piece jigsaw puzzle, and Marcia (Born) Schacht celebrated a birthday and told us she is going to get married. Our last port was a stop in Ensenada, Mexico for several hours to satisfy the Jones Law that foreign registered ships cannot cruise the US ports without a foreign stop. We took a tour of the city at night and then attended a Mexican Fiesta. Marlene had a painful tooth problem and got a doctor's advice and a prescription for a whopping $8 in Ensenada. Then we got back to San Diego the following morning Nov 21 and disembarked.

Kathy and I took the Trolley ride all over San Diego and saw the city, as we were not leaving until the following morning. Doug & Anna Marie Yates, Marcia (Born) Schacht and her fiancé, Tom, stayed also.

For the most part, the ocean was very cooperative as the waves were very nice to us—in fact, two of the days were as smooth as glass, only one time did I feel a lot of movement and that was in the Theatre at night. Overall, it was probably less choppy than the Panama Canal Cruise. This cruise was an older crowd with a lot of wheel chairs and canes. The group discussed what we do next and when. Some of the group seemed ready to go again as early as the 2nd quarter of 2009. I will have another questionnaire out soon to determine future interests and timing. Looking forward to the next Cruise soon!

Kathy and I stopped in Flagstaff and had dinner with Bob & Karen (Vork) Moir at her son's restaurant, Brix.

Bob Wake

Cruisers included: Bob & Kathy Wake; Verne & Shari (Ackerlund) Jobst; Betty Steifbold and friend, Susan Lucas; Marcia (Born) Schacht and fiancé, Tom Watts; Ed & Janet Wahl; Doug & Anna Marie Yates; and Willy & Marlene Neurauter.

AN IMPORTANT NOTE ON DUES!

Ten years ago, at our 40th Reunion, when we proposed starting a voluntary dues program of $10 per year, it looked like all hands were raised in approval of the idea. Let's see now, it's been 10 years since then and there were about 150 classmates voting. My math never was too good, but it seems that if all who raised their hands meant what they said with their vote, we should have received close to $15,000 over the last ten years. To put it gently, we are a little shy of that goal.

Folks, if you have been waiting for the right time to get your dues payment program started, or caught up if you're part way along, now is the time. Our 50th Reunion is in September and we can really use the outstanding dues money to help defray expenses and make sure that we have a bang-up party at a reasonable price.

We hope you agree that we have tried hard to put your dues money to good use. For example, each edition of our class newsletter, "Reunited," which is mailed out by our HomeTown Chapter to almost 500 classmates, costs approximately $500.

Bottom line, many of you have been very faithful in keeping up on your dues and some have been most generous. We thank you very much for your support and hope you continue. To those who have yet to start, now more than ever, is the perfect time for your support to arrive at our Treasurer's house. Please make your checks payable to AHS Class of '59 and mail to:
